

“ME –FIRST BULLYING TRAINING”

An opportunity to learn more about how bullying can alter our lives.

We will talk about how to recognize the many forms of bullying

And practice how to neutralize a bully's actions.

We will all learn how to create a better, more tolerant and accepting world.

There will be 5 sessions for us to learn, practice and grow our abilities to make a kinder, safer world free of bullying.

This program is designed for individuals with developmental and intellectual disabilities and their sibling(s) but participants must be 10-14 years old.
